Dear Secretary Gant,

I am writing to give written notice of a raffle to benefit the General Fund for University Advancement at Dakota State University per SDCL 22-25-25 (6). The DSU Foundation will be conducting a raffle for a trip for two to attend the Green Bay Packers vs. Arizona Cardinals game on November 4th, 2012. The package includes the following:

- Private, charter flight from Sioux Falls (same day service)
- Snacks and drinks on the flight
- Transportation in Green Bay
- VIP seating in a luxury suite
- Food and drink service during the game
- Dinner after the game

The drawing will take place at half-time of Dakota State University's Homecoming Football game on Saturday September 29, 2012 in Madison, SD. The $100 tickets will be sold primarily to alumni and friends of Dakota State, although there will be others across the state of South Dakota that may be interested as well. We will print 100 tickets with a goal to sell all tickets. Ticket sales will start immediately after the 30 day waiting period per SDCL 22-25-25 (6).

The Dakota State University Foundation is a nonprofit organization dedicated to maximizing private resources for Dakota State University.

Please find enclosed our statement of legal and exempt status as a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization.

Gentlemen:

Based on information supplied, and assuming your operations will be as stated in your application for recognition of exemption, we have determined you are exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

We have further determined you are not a private foundation within the meaning of section 509(a) of the Code, because you are an organization described in section 509(a)(3).

You are not liable for social security (FICA) taxes unless you file a waiver of exemption certificate as provided in the Federal Insurance Contributions Act. You are not liable for the taxes imposed under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (FUTA).

Since you are not a private foundation, you are not subject to the excise taxes under Chapter 42 of the Code. However, you are not automatically exempt from other Federal excise taxes.

Donors may deduct contributions to you as provided in section 170 of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to you or for your use are deductible for Federal estate and gift tax purposes under sections 2055, 2106, and 2522 of the Code.

If your purposes, character, or method of operation is changed, you must let us know so we can consider the effect of the change on your exempt status. Also, you must inform us of all changes in your name or address.

If your gross receipts each year are normally more than $5,000, you are required to file Form 990, Return of Organization Exempt From Income Tax, by the 15th day of the fifth month after the end of your annual accounting period. The law imposes a penalty of $10 a day, up to a maximum of $5,000, for failure to file a return on time.

You are not required to file Federal income tax returns unless you are subject to the tax on unrelated business income under section 511 of the Code. If you are subject to this tax, you must file an income tax return on Form 990-T. In this letter we are not determining whether any of your present or proposed activities are unrelated trade or business as defined in section 513 of the Code.

You need an employer identification number even if you have no employees. If an employer identification number was not entered on your application, a number will be assigned to you and you will be advised of it. Please use that number on all returns you file and in all correspondence with the Internal Revenue Service.

Please keep this determination letter in your permanent records.

Sincerely yours,

R. C. Voskuil
